

ENVIRONMENTAL METHOD STATEMENT: Solid waste control.

Objective:

This Environmental Method Statement for Solid Waste Control outlines the procedures and practices that will be implemented to manage solid waste generated during the project.

Purpose:

The purpose of this Environmental Method Statement (EMS) for Solid Waste Control is to outline the strategies and measures that will be implemented to effectively manage solid waste generated during the project. This document is essential for ensuring that waste management practices are environmentally responsible, compliant with regulations, and sustainable.

Scope:

- Management of solid waste.
- Disposal of waste.

Works, Management actions, Controls:

1. Management of solid waste.
 - Identify waste types.
2. Disposal of waste:
 - Plastic and paper waste is collected on Mondays and taken to the
 - No hazardous materials on site

Conclusion:

By following these environmentally sound procedures, the project will help protect natural resources, reduce pollution, and comply with environmental regulations.